30th Anniversary
Celebration recap

Prez Sez

By Dave Bokros

The cold weather is here! As the days grow shorter it is hard to keep in mind that you waited for this weather all summer long. Take advantage of it.

The shorter days are a reminder that time is precious. You may find yourself making the excuse that there just isn't time. Think hard about your week. If there is anything you do in the evening that doesn't benefit your well being the way that running does, then give it up. If you like to unwind in front of the television, then give up one show every other day and go to bed early. Get up pre-dawn and go out in the cold and run. The air and sky will be clear and you will be glad that you ran.

Winter is a time of renewal. Flowers turn brown and go dormant, trees lose their leaves, and the insects go silent in an involuntary retreat from the coming winter. They shrink back to save their energy for the spring to reemerge new or as something else. As you run in those predawn hours in the cold and quiet you can consider yourself defiant against nature's desire to have you go dormant for the winter. Carry the torch for all the creatures that lack your free will. Use this time to renew your running spirit.

Think of someone you have not seen or spoken to in a long time and give them a call. Go for a run!

See you on the road! =

Board of Directors' Minutes 10/14/2008

The Meeting was called to order by Dave Bokros at 7:10 pm. Board members in attendance were Randy Arend, Dave Bokros, Janis Dolemba, Kellie Howard, Glenn Hanna, Kim Lundy, Mike Mayse, Keith Poythress, Mary Ann Steinberg, John Steinberg, Regina Taylor and James Vavrina.

Minutes: There were no changes to the September minutes.

Treasurer's Report: Janis Dolemba stated that our income had gone up because of money collected for the Strider dinner, but that amount will go down when payments are made for costs incurred. She asked Dave about moving money from the Race Accounts, and he said he would let her know about the Memorial Day Race, and whether all balances were complete.

Budget Committee for 2009: Dave let everyone know that the Budget Committee would be meeting soon to develop a proposed budget for the board's December meeting. On the committee are Dave Bokros, board president; Mike Mayse for equipment, Glen Hanna for Hospitality, Keith for merchandise; Randy Arend who is a CPA and can help with number crunching and Kellie Howard.

River Road Resolution (RRR) 5k Proposed Budget: Dave presented the budget sent to him by Bob Boyd for next year's RRR 5K. He noted that some of the numbers vary from previous years because of loss of some of the usual sponsors. Kellie Howard made a motion that we accept the budget as written and Mike Mayse seconded. All approved unanimously.

Green Cove Springs (GCS) Christmas Parade Fun Run: Dave presented a request from GCS for us to support the annual Fun Run as we have in the past. Dave said we do registration at the start and hand out candy at the end. Glenn Hannah requested we purchase additional candy since we ran out last year. Karen McCormick will be organizing volunteers for the event. Mary Ann Steinberg asked if we need to purchase the

(Don't) Take It to the Limit

The rock group, The Eagles, wrote and sang Take It to the Limit about 30 years ago. It was my theme song for many hard races and difficult training runs and occasionally the tune and lyrics revisit my mind.

Pushing to one's limits is a recurring philosophy in our sport. T-shirts at track meets and cross country races this fall are proof.

"A race you can walk away from is one in which you didn't do your best," says one.

Another proclaims, "Get Out of Your Comfort Zone."

And another cotton bulletin board: "Pain is weakness leaving the body," a military boot camp theme.

Fifty years ago, Coach Percy Cerutti talked of breaking through the pain barrier by training to exhaustion. But even old Perce tempered his philosophy with a warning:

"Too literal an interpretation of this advice can be disastrous."

Before and after gatherings of runners, at races and workouts, the majority of talk is of aches and injuries, illnesses and layoffs. Dr. Joe Vigil, exercise physiologist and coach, proclaimed that a runner's life is punctuated by injury. The best one can hope for is "long periods of maintenance punctuated by short periods of development."

Many past champions bemoan their habit of continual hammering, in training, especially, as the reason for truncated running careers. Olympic champions Zatopek and Kutts, Ted Corbitt, Alberto Salazar, and a couple dozen local fellows have all stated that their competitive running careers were cut short by failing to use more self-control in their training.

Two notable exceptions come immediately to mind, Pat Porter and Haile Gebrselassie.

Porter was recently featured in its "Where are they now?" section. He is arguably the best male cross country runner in American history. Porter won three collegiate cross country titles, then reeled off eight straight TAC (now the USATF) titles in as many years.

This is amazing on many levels. Porter was able, through careful peaking and staying in top health, to be at his best on a specific day for eight straight years. And to win the national championship in cross country means that you face the best runners from every event from 800 meters to the marathon, under wintery conditions, on hills and through mud, and beat every one of them.

I met Porter in the twilight of his career as a national class athlete. He was still living and training in high-altitude Alamosa, Colorado. A two-time Olympian at 10,000 meters, Porter, simply put, took care of himself. If he had the sniffles, he'd go for a jog instead of a hard run. On the dirt road to start the 10-mile climb up 11,000-foot high Rock Creek, he always pulled a bandana over his nose to keep out the dust.

In those four years, 1990 to 1993, Porter placed second, tenth, second, and fourth at the National Championships, not exactly a sudden departure from being the best. Pat Porter was at the top for a decade and a half because he did not take it to the limit except when it counted.

Twice Olympic Champion at 10,000 meters, Ethiopian great Haile Gebrselassie has set records since the early 1990s. Gebrselassie ran his first marathon at 15, a casual three hours, 15 minutes, because his brother encouraged him to try it. At the Berlin Marathon in 2007, he shattered the world record with a 2:04:26. Just a few weeks back, Haile proved that was no fluke with an amazing 2:03:59 for 26 miles, 385 yards.

Gebrselassie is not just a long distance man. While Porter was finishing his cross country career, the Ethiopian was setting world records at two miles (indoors), 5,000 meters, and 10 km, some multiple times. Now, a dozen years later, he is still one of the world's best (fifth in the Olympic 10,000) at the short distances and the best ever at the marathon.

But Gebrselassie chose not to run the marathon at the Beijing Olympics, citing concern for his long-term racing career because of pollution. Would he have been Olympic Champion? He already has two golds, and he just broke the world record again. 'Nuff said. He knows what is best for him.

So I have decided to extend my running career by backing off a little bit. My goal is to stay healthier, and enjoy every day that I can run. If I race, I'll push it. If I feel a little puny, I plan to take a day off.

I have a young friend in Nebraska, Jason Brindle, who told me last winter that he has a new rule.

"I don't go outside to run if the temperature is less than my age." Since he is about 30, that keeps him off the wintery Nebraska roads most of December through February. That rule sounded good to me, too, until I realized that I (at over 60) would have to skip running from October through March here in Florida. Maybe that's too conservative.

But next time I start humming Take It to the Limit, my plan is to reminisce about those days past when I could run myself blind, then just slow down a little more and enjoy the passage of air through my lungs. = jingle bells and hats and Dave explained that we are given to us by the city. Mike Mayse made a motion to support this event, seconded by Kellie Howard; it was approved unanimously.

Jay Birmingham coaches at St. Johns Country Day School. He has coached 24 individual state champions, 30 collegiate All-Americans, and was the 1996 NAIA National Men's Cross Country Coach of the Year.

Children's Run/Walk funding requests: Vicky Connell presented four requests for funding and gave the Children's Running Committee recommendations. Janis Dolemba made a motion to approve the requested amount of $500 for Oakleaf Village Elementary School and Kellie Howard seconded. It was approved. Janis Dolemba moved that we approve the requests from Shadowlawn Elementary for $450 and from Middleberg for $100; Mike Mayse seconded and it was approved. After some discussion by the board, Glenn Hannah made a motion that we disapprove the request from Yulee Middle School ($150 for running shirts/shoes and $350 for 5K entry fees); Keith Poythress seconded, and it was passed. Mary Ann recommended we forward the request to the Jacksonville Track Club who has indicated in the past that they might support requests such as this, and that they have more funding available. It was agreed that this was a good idea.

Strider Support for the Breast Cancer Marathon: Dave let the board know that the Donna Hicken foundation has asked us to support them with volunteers for the race. They have not asked for money. Dave explained that they have a mechanism on their website for volunteers to sign up. He has requested water stop 25 again. Kellie and James made a motion to support it, and it was passed unanimously. The marathon/half marathon is scheduled for Feb 14th.

Social Update: Glenn Hannah let the board know that the November social will be in Ponte Vedra at the Ocean Grove Condominiums clubhouse, on November 9th. Glenn said he doesn't have a date yet for the Christmas social but it's usually the same weekend as the Jax Bank Marathon.

General Discussion: Randy Arend stated that the committee which put on the Strider 30th Anniversary dinner did a great job, and the dinner was very enjoyable. Kellie Howard thanked everyone who put on the Jenny's Pennies Brunch, saying it was nice also. Volunteers included Jenny and Richard Allen, Marage and Paul Ruebush, Dick and Elke Miller, and Pat McEvers & Charles Desrosier.

Mary Ann Steinberg gave an update for the Step Up Florida 5K. The Orange Park Medical Center gave $1500 dollars which will be split between the schools who participate. Jeff Galloway is going to be the official announcer for the event. Mary Ann hopes to have a DJ and other special activities. She has not received the Sacony grant yet, but has another possible sponsor. The Date for the event is Saturday, Feb 7th. Mary Ann also stated that the SHAC will meet on Monday, Oct 20th.

Mike Mayse said he's putting together a proposal to change the way we do membership notifications, which will save postage as well as trees. This will become an email system with notices for renewal. He also wants to get another 100 traffic cones so he can set up the fun run and 5K at the same time at our races.

Mike Mayse made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Janis Dolemba. The meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Vicky Connell =

New life for old shoes!

The Florida Striders have begun to collect old running shoes for reuse! The shoes that are wearable will be donated locally for those that need them and those that are beyond the garden shoe phase will be shipped to Nike for the Nike Reuse-a-Shoe program. The program recycles the material in your shoes for use in rubberized track surfaces and other athletic court surfaces in schools around the world! There will be a box for shoe donation at all Florida striders races starting with the Hog Jog.

The Back Page

BY MIKE MARINO

Nothing quite like local races every weekend and the first race of a longer distance to let you know fall is here. And out of town races too. Striders were out in force to welcome the cooler weather, and performing at our usually high standards.

Starting off the local races was the Children's Way 5K on September 27th. The course was reportedly shortened by .05 of a mile due to flooding, so those of you wishing to claim a PR, so sorry. Justin Jacobs was again toward the front of the pack, needing only a few seconds more than a morning coffee break to cover the course, posting a time of 15:05 while placing 2nd overall (lets hope his boss doesn't dock him for those five seconds). John Wisker wasn't far behind, winning the master's division with a 17:05. In the age groups, Striders swept away the competition in three different age groups, with (in order of finish) John Metzgar, Randy Arend and Paul Smyth sweeping the men's 45-49 category; Bruce Holmes, Bernie Candy and George White pulling off the sweep of the 60-64 men's; and Everett Crum and Al Saffer taking home the 70-74 men's awards. Also recording age group wins were Bill Phillips, Laurie Pinover, Alek Abate, Frank Frazier, Diane Aimone, and 900+ racing legend Joe Connolly. Runner-up age group efforts were turned in by Terry Sikes, Ann Krause, Rebekah Wild, Claudia French, John Aimone, and our fastest female Strider, Regina Taylor (19:55). And also getting their name called out to go in front of everyone to get a 3rd place age group award were Robert Walker, Lewis Buzzell, Tracy Pfuntner and Paul Smith.

The following week on October 4th saw a two race event with the Marine Corps Half Marathon and Freedom 5K. Almost 90 Striders turned out for the two races. In the half marathon, Justin Jacobs ran to a 2nd place overall finish for the second week in a row with an impressive time of 1:10:36. Regina Taylor led all female Striders, also for the second week in a row, running a 1:39:26 on her way to a 2nd place age group prize. Three Striders were among the few and proud who bested all comers in their respective age groups, and thus we hail Terry Sikes, Frank Frazier and Nancy Pullo for their championship efforts. Running to 2nd place age group finishes were John Wisker, Bruce Holmes, Paul Smith (with a PR), and Maria McNary. Bernie Candy led the 3rd place age group Striders, and was joined by Rosa Haslip, Stephanie Griffith and Susan Gostage. Also of note, several Striders ran PRs, which included: Keith Poythress, Robert Crampton, James Vavrina, Kay Womack, Shannen Crampton and David Albritton (okay, it was his first half marathon, but that still makes it his PR). In the 5K, Ann Krause led the Strider charge by winning the women's race in 22:19. Striders were the best in each master's division, with Gary Haslip winning the men's and Tracey Pfuntner winning the women's. Four Striders were at the top of their age groups, which included Freddy Fillingham, Irene Herbertson, Gail Pylipow, and Gayla Poythress. Placing second in their age groups were Glenn Hanna and Robert Meister; placing third were Kimberly Lundy and Carrie Imrich. Also noted on the Strider Man was that Vickie Choinski finally caught Freddy, and 6-year-old Emilee Bush finished the race.

The Rita Town Center 5K was the next weekend on October 11th. John Funk led all Striders with an 18:50, which was good for 3rd in his age group. Age group winners included Stephen Beard, Patrick McKeefery, George White, Rebekah Wild, Al Saffer, Ginger Frazier-French and Joe Connolly. Our 2nd place age group finishers were Tracy Dawson (fastest female Strider, 21:21) and Sue Whitworth. Tracy Pfuntner, Kathy Murray, Drew Hanna and Freddy Fillingham earned 3rd place age group prizes.

Wrapping up the local stuff was the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure 5K. A great turnout for a great cause and a great effort by the Striders at the race.

John Wisker led the way, winning the Master's division with a 17:04. Two age group sweeps to report, with Ann Krause, Stephanie Griffith, and Gail Pylipow sweeping the 50-54 women's and Frank Frazier, Paul Smith and Thom Henkel sweeping the 60-64 men's. And if you're keeping score between those two age groups, the women beat the men by four seconds. Our other age group champs were Mark Woods, Wendy Patterson (fastest female Strider, 20:54), Simon Jacobson and Al Saffer. Stephen Beard ran to a 2nd place age group finish, and 3rd place age group efforts were run by Michael Fitzsimmons and Joe Connolly.

Striders – They're Everywhere!

A whole bunch of Striders were racing away from Jacksonville, starting off with John Heisner at the Noble Canyon 50K in Pine Valley, California. It was John's first ultra-marathon, though you wouldn't have known it based on his time of 5:39:33 and finish of tied for 8th overall out of 125 runners. Yeah, tied for 8th; I guess 50K wasn't enough to settle the score between John and the fellow finishing with him. Race conditions were hot and the terrain rough and rocky, as if the 50K weren't enough. And perhaps John did more distance, as he missed a turn late in the race – got to pay attention John. He fell down twice too, but kept going. Great job John.

Maria Littlejohn made a trip to New York City, and while there did the Tunnel to Towers 5K. The race is a charity event in honor of Stephen Siller, a fallen fire fighter from 9/11. Siller had the day off on 9/11 and was on his way to play golf when he heard the towers had been hit. He turned his car around so he could join his squad, but traffic was stopped at the Brooklyn Battery Tunnel, so he got out of his car and ran with all his gear to the towers try to join his squad. The race retraces his steps on that day. Fire fighters and police turned out in force for the event, and Maria recommends it for anyone looking for an excuse to go to NYC. Maria's time was 28:48.

On October 11th in Front Royal, Virginia, Jack Howdeshell ran in the Festival of Leaves 5K. Jack described the conditions as 46 degrees and foggy, and the course as what folks in Virginia refer to as "rolling hills," which translates into "Oh My God" steep hills when speaking Floridian. Nonetheless, Jack placed 2nd in his age group in a time of 21:58.

A group of Striders went down to Disney World to run the Race for the Taste 10K on the October 12th. The race starts with a ceremonial toast and fireworks at the Wide World of Sports Complex, goes through an action set in MGM Studios, past some resorts and into Epcot for the finish. At the finish line, runners and their friends and family get to sample international cuisine from the Food & Wine Festival at a post-race picnic. This of course beckons the question, were the people there to race or just running as fast as they could to get to the picnic? Leading the Strider effort was Keith Poythress, who was 1st in the military division to get to the food with a 42:13, and he was later joined at the picnic by Kay Womack, Robert Walker, James Vavrina and Gayla Poythress.

And finally, Marie and Ken Bendy took in two events on consecutive weekends during their recent travels. They first ran in the Bethel Half Marathon and 5K in Bethel, North Carolina on October 11th. Marie ran the half and Ken the 5K, with Marie placing 2nd in her age group despite a 10 minute potty stop along the way and Ken placing 3rd in his age group. The next weekend, on October 18th, the two were at the Peachtree City Classic 15K in (you guessed it) Peachtree City, Georgia. There was the accompanying Peachtree City Classic 5K as well. The 15K was the RRCA Southern Region Championship, and Marie was in championship form, winning her age group in a time of 1:28:50. Ken took in the 5K and placed 2nd in his age group. Well done Bendy's.

Tidbits and stuff I missed

Congrats to newlyweds Regina Soeey and Darin Bickle. The two were married on October 19th at an outdoor ceremony with a view of the St. Johns River. It was definitely a beautiful day in every regard. Best wishes to you both.

Now, on to something important – a huge event is coming up. Yes, it's time to start getting ready to trudge through the mud at the Last Gasp Cross Country Race on December 28th. As you may recall, the Strider Trail Buffs finally broke through and won the team title in 2007 after six years of coming in second. We must defend our title! I will serve as the team's anchor (meaning I'll be the slowest runner on it) or coach based on turnout. E-mail me to let me know if you can make the race and want to be on the squad. Previous buffs are entitled to claim "squatters rights", and if we get a lot, we'll enter two teams.

For things I missed, check out the Award section.

Award

Last month you read about Dave Shaffer, who is deployed in Iraq. As you may recall, Dave won a half marathon in 100 degree heat on a course with armored vehicles and within an earshot of military planes taking off and landing. Yes, he should have gotten his award last month given his effort in the race coupled with his service to our country. And while your award is a month late Dave, you still get to enjoy that Back Page prize ofa nice smug feeling....so long as you can do it within Naval protocol.

Great effort this past month folks. Remember to record your times on the Strider man at the local races and send in those results from out of town races. Until next time, train well and be safe. =

Please get your race times in as soon as possible if you want them published. You can send your times, trash, & trivia by e-mail (preferred) to m.t.marino@clearwire.net or Mike's snail mail 9858 Moorings Dr., Jacksonville, FL 32257
